1 REJOICE NO MATTER WHAT

Scripture: Philippians 4:4

Remember: Your circumstances do not have to be good for God to still be good.

2 THE HOLY SPIRIT WILL LEAD YOU

Scripture: John 16:13

The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Truth. God did not leave us to figure life out alone. Ask, "Holy Spirit, how are You leading me?"

4 LEARN TO RECOGNIZE HIS VOICE

Learning God's voice takes relationship: spend time in the Word, pray, listen for the Holy Spirit, and obey what He shows you.

Remember: Time with God makes His leading more familiar.

5 HOLY SPIRIT OR MY OWN THINKING?

The Holy Spirit agrees with God's Word, produces peace, leads toward love, and may require sacrifice. Carnal thinking can be driven by pride, anxiety, emotions, or self-centered desires.

Remember: Ask: "Does this line up with the Word of God?"

Rejoice in the Lord, stay connected to His Word, listen for the Holy Spirit, and be willing to obey when He leads.

ASK YOURSELF

Am I allowing the Holy Spirit to lead me, or my feelings, fear, pride, or circumstances?

Prayer: "Holy Spirit, help me recognize Your voice, follow Your leading, and obey You even when surrender is required."
